Life at Pfeiffer can be an experience—what kind of experience is left up to you. Look around and see all that Pfeiffer has to offer you. There's always something going on, whether it is a concert or movie, sporting event, club activity, or just whatever you make happen.

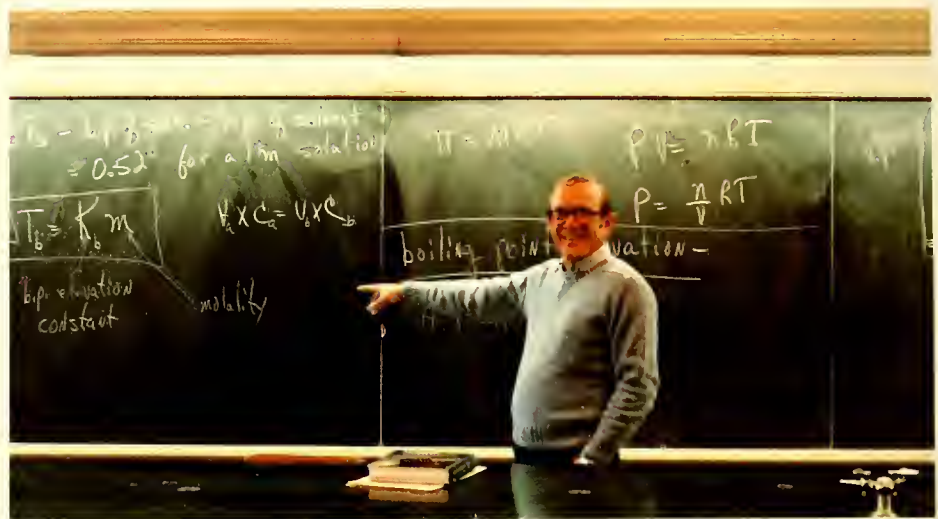

Pfeiffer is a good place to expend your time, talent, and energy in many and varied ways, no matter what they are. Take, for instance, experiencing an all night chemistry lab, being caught breaking visitation, eating in the cafeteria—that is an experience, Concert Choir rehearsals, the long walk to the post office only to find “air” mail, late night visits to Kermit’s for a Big K. after all, any experience is only worth what you put into it.

The people at Pfeiffer make the Pfeiffer experience. "Never a stranger" is true at Pfeiffer. The size of the student body allows one to get to know everyone and creates the opportunity for close relationships with professors. The people at Pfeiffer are Pfeiffer.

“A Midsummer Night’s Dream” was the theme for Homecoming 1983. The Homecoming Committee, headed by Kathy Honecker and Judy O’Dell, planned many festivities for the students and Wanda Farmer, head of Alumni Activities, provided many opportunities for alumni to gather. All events were well received by the students and alumni.

The climax of the weekend was the formal dance Saturday evening. Held at Asheboro Country Club, the catered affair organized by Sophomore class president Sam Misenheimer and the Sophomore class proved to be a big success. After the presentation of the 1983 Homecoming Court, Miss Kimberly Whitesides was crowned Homecoming Queen.

After three days of activities, the weekend ended with a pig pickin’ held at Richfield Park. Picnickers ate barbeque prepared by Roy Biggers and played volleyball in the warm weather.

Homecoming 1983 was Pfeiffer’s chance to “step into days of old” and to relive the “golden days of the past”. It was a time to make a lasting memory.

Halloween

The Halloween weekend at Pfeiffer was a festive one. The Association of Men Students and the Association of Women Students collaborated in order to give students the best Halloween ever. Halloween evening, AMS and AWS sponsored trick-or-treating in the dorms. Later that evening, a dance was held at the lake house. AMS representative Wayne Canady and AWS representative Judy O'Dell organized the event which was complete with Jack o'lanterns, bales of hay, coffins, mist rising from the lake, and floating ghosts. Costume contest winners were Shari Keener as a fruit fly and Yoko Murato as Raggedy Ann.

Bloodmobile

With a lot of help from CUB and a many volunteers, the 1983-84 annual Bloodmobile was a big success. Organizers Mannette Scufka and Roseann SeTommaso encouraged many first time donors to give, but the majority of blood was given by veteran donors. The most important thing was that the blood was given. The theme for the Bloodmobile was "You may not be dying to give today, but tomorrow you may be dying to receive."

1) Students volunteers invested their time in order to make the event a success. 2) The faculty also made an effort to give blood. 3) "Come on, youse guys, if I can give you can too!"

Williamsburg Christmas

Williamsburg Christmas is one of the most time honored traditions at Pfeiffer. Every year the students and faculty combine their energy to transform Pfeiffer into an antique picture of Christmas—18th century Williamsburg. The buildings are graced with handmade decorations to further enhance the theme. This past year the campus was decorated with live greenery and red and gold bows. As always, a single candle was placed in all the front windows of the buildings. Decorating awards went to the chapel, student center, Kluff dorm, and Washington dorm. Sponsored by the Christian Life Council, Williamsburg Christmas was held December 3-11.

A Holiday Tradition

April Festival 1984

April Festival was the weekend of Friday 13th through Sunday the fifteenth. Although the celebrations started on what is traditionally considered to be a bad luck day, the weekend was far from that. Sarah Sexton and Rich Cook headed the committee that made April Fest the success that it was.

The weekend started with a dance at Fiber Industries. Dress was formal and the decorations were designed by Ann Salancy and the Fun Bunch. The dance was well attended and many students felt that it was the best April Fest dance ever.

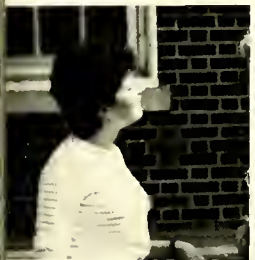

Instead of a parade and Parents Day, Sarah and Rich planned many new events for students to participate in. The center of action was Gibson Lake where there was a Homemade Boat Race. Brian Gompers supervised the Superstar Olympic Contest which included events such as canoe racing, obstacle course, and barrel rolling.

Sunday's festivities took place at Richfield Park. There students enjoyed the annual Pig Pickin'. Roy Biggers was in charge of this activity.

Charlotte Campus . . .

A very important part of Pfeiffer College that few people know about is the successful and growing Charlotte Campus. Nearly 200 students are enrolled in computer, criminalities and business courses, and many are working toward a degree in areas such as Business Administration, Computer Information Systems, and Law Enforcement. The Charlotte Campus awards degrees in nine fields including two areas—Private Security Systems and Real Estate—that the Misenheimer campus does not offer. The average age of the Charlotte students is in the mid 30's, although the campus operates on a regular two-semester schedule with two seven week summer sessions, about ninety percent of the students work full time and average two courses a semester. Most courses are taught at night and meet only once a week as a benefit to those who work.

1) Dr. Peter Meyer 2) Frankie Darlington 3) and 5) Students are hard at work. 4) Dr. Peter Meyer checks the bulletin board.

The campus is competently managed by a full time staff of only three people. Dr. Peter Meyer is the Director of Degree Programs. He is closely assisted by Frankie Darlington, Assistant Director and Sarah Atkinson, the very busy but efficient secretary for these two administrators. Each of them is always available to offer academic advice and personal reassurance to the students. Although approximately two years of previous college experience is required for most students, Dr. Meyer and the staff consider each student's situation individually and work out the best possible arrangement.

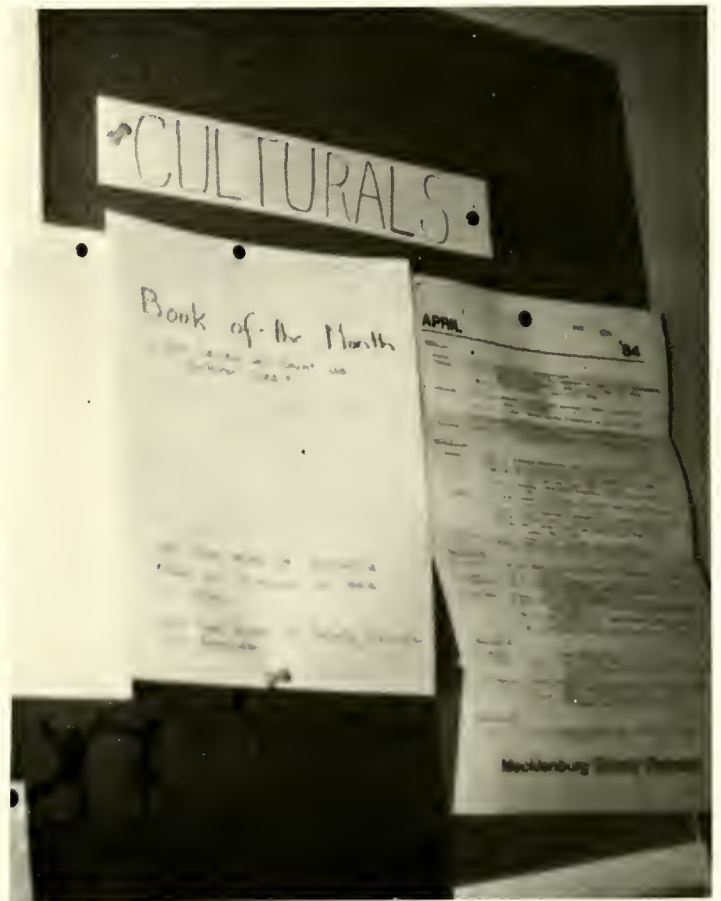

Charlotte Campus . . .

The campus recently moved in August 1983 to Hanover Square on East Morehead Street. In the new building students can take advantage of five bright, modern classrooms and a fully equipped computer room. A small library is housed there also, but due to the open communication between the two Pfeiffer campuses, any unavailable resources can be delivered to Charlotte within twenty-four hours. In fact, there are many advantages to attending the Charlotte Campus of Pfeiffer College. The courses and schedules are arranged for working people who want to further their education, the facilities are first rate, and most importantly, the students are treated as individuals by a caring staff. The Charlotte staff and students proudly feel that they are a beneficial and vital part of Pfeiffer College. They should—they are.

College Union Board

The CUB—College Union Board—is a student operated organization whose purpose is to provide entertainment for Pfeiffer students. The board brings movies, concerts, theatre acts, and coffee house acts to Pfeiffer. This year the board organized a James Bond film festival, and brought such acts as Scott Jones, Carl Rosen, and Jack Gallagher to Pfeiffer students. Many of the events organized are free of charge to Pfeiffer students because CUB's budget is created of student approved allotment. Advisors to CUB are Fred Salancy and Dr. Steve Dial.

CUB, as well as provide entertainment, also takes on projects that enhance student life at Pfeiffer. One of the year's biggest projects was the development of the snack bar in the student center. Thanks to colorful murals on the wall that were painted by Melanie Vaughn, bright posters, and cheery plants, the snack bar is now a place where students can gather and enjoy the wide selection of food offered.

DORMS

Cline Dorm

Cline Dorm is an upperclassmen dorm for women. The smallest womens' dorm, it housed thirty-five women. The Residence Directors are Carol Hill and Janice Royall. Despite its small size, Cline is a very active dorm. It is especially active in intramural sports, having an award winning basketball team.

Right—Meredyth Holhouser run down the court in pursuit of the basketball. Below—Cline Dorm and its residents. Opposite page—Karen Jacoby manages a smile as she walks past Cline. 2) Cline residents Paula Radice and Meredyth Holhouser share a joke. 3) Tammy Hartsell concentrates on the basket before making a crucial shot. 4) A tension filled moment—is it good or not? 5) Cline's intramural basketball team.

Ervin Dorm

Ervin Dorm is an upperclassmen dorm for men that housed eighty men during 1983-84. The Residence Directors are Randy Rowland and Bob Devine. Since Ervin is located on the edge of a large field, on almost any sunny day you can find its residents playing soccer, lacrosse, softball, or whatever is in season. What is Ervin noted for? RD Randy Rowland says, "Bad company!" Actually, Ervin annually sponsors a toga party on the front lawn and always adds an interesting float to the Homecoming parade. Ervin also is noted for its participation in intramural sports.

Rowe Hall

Rowe Hall is a freshmen dorm for women that housed eighty women. Residence directors are Robin Campbell and Stephanie Wilson. Counselors are Melanie Vaughn, Sandy Holland, Eva Caudle, Kelly Taylor, Kathy Wolfe, Paula Gorman, Judy O'Dell, Mary George Johnson, and Brenda Beachum. The Residence Assistant is Betsy Turnmire. Rowe is a very active dorm. They annually decorate for both Homecoming and Williamsburg Christmas. This year they won the prize for best decorated dorm during Homecoming. They also sponsored a campus wide Open House to help celebrate Williamsburg Christmas.

Kluftinger Dorm

Kluftinger Dorm is a freshman dorm for men. It housed fifty-five men during 1983-84. Residence directors are Mark Honecker and Jim Dugan. Counselors are John Mecuri, Clark Goodman, Steve Tomberlain, and the Residence Assistant is Jeff DeBoy. Kluft houses the infamous "Kluft Boys". During Williamsburg Christmas, they were awarded with second place in the decorating contest.

ARTS AT PFEIFFER

1983-84 Pfeiffer College Concert Choir

The 1983-84 Pfeiffer Concert Choir, under the direction of Dr. Richard H. Brewer, had an extraordinary year. Consisting of forty students, the choir made two major tours this past year.

January tour, a tour designed to help Pfeiffer's recruitment of new students, saw the choir traveling through the south. Stops along the travel route included Atlanta, Ga., Savannah, Ga. and Pensacola, Fla. Both Doc and the choir considered this tour to be a great success.

On May 6, the choir left on its fourth All-American tour to California. Giving fifteen concerts in twenty-six days, the choir was kept very busy. Highlights of this tour included Yellowstone National Park, San Francisco, Ca., Santa Monica, Ca., and Las Vegas, Nevada. Thanks to the hard work of Doc, this tour was also a success.

The climax of the choir's year, though, came in the middle of exam week. The Concert Choir was the only college choir invited to sing at the United Methodist Church's General Conference in Baltimore, Maryland. This was not only an honor and distinction for the choir, but also for Pfeiffer College. It gave the choir an excellent opportunity to live up to their motto—"Take heed that what you sing with your mouths you believe in your heart and what you believe in your heart you show forth in your works."

1983-84 Symphonic Choir

On December 6, 1983, the Symphonic Choir, under the direction of Dr. Richard H. Brewer, performed Daniel Pinkham's "Sinfonia Sacre" with members of the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra. "Une Cantate de Noel" composed by Arthur Honegger was the next selection performed. The Symphonic Choir was joined in this medley of French and German carols by the Matthews Elementary Choir.

The second half of the program consisted of Beethoven's "Fantasy in c minor", Op. 80. Piano soloist was Pfeiffer's Dr. Walter B. Saul, II. The solo ensemble was composed of sopranos Gay Baldwin and Judith Fulp, altos Michelle Miller and Judy O'Dell, tenors David Browning and Richard Cook, and bass Mark Stephenson.

The spring concert opened with Mozart's "Concerto for Horn in E-flat Major" featuring Robert Gehner as the horn soloist. The "Mass in C Major", Opus 86 by Ludwig von Beethoven, completed the concert. The solo quartet was Judith Fulp, soprano, Michelle Miller, alto, David Browning, tenor and Mark Stephenson, bass.

Chamber Singers

The 1983-84 Chamber Singers had a very busy season. Under the direction of Dr. Richard H. Brewer, the small, auditioned group prepared several programs for various groups around the area. The highlight of the year, though, was the opera workshop that was held. The group learned and performed selections from operas such as "The Magic Flute", "Carmen", "The Marriage of Figaro", and "Rigoletto".

Pfeiffer Theatre opened its season with "Talley's Folly" by Lanford Wilson. A poignant comedy, the play revolved around the lives of Matt Friedman and Sally Talley. The ways in which these two characters touched one another entertained Pfeiffer audiences and started the theatrical season off with a smash.

1) Pfeiffer theatre director Fred Salancy as Matt Friedman. 2) Ann Salancy as Sally Talley. Opposite page—1) Sally helps Matt light the lantern. 2) Matt forces Sally into a moment of confrontation.

William Shakespeare's play, "As You Like It", was the Pfeiffer College Theatre's second production of the year. Directed by Fred Salancy, the show was considered to be a great success even though this was the first time in several years that a Shakespearean show was produced at Pfeiffer. The audience enjoyed the Renaissance atmosphere. Original music by Kit Jenkins and the set designed by Erik Berg further enhanced the illusion. Revolving around the amorous adventures of Rosalind and Orlando, "As You Like It" gave Pfeiffer a chance to show off some of its best theatrical talent, both new and old. Due to the hard work of the cast and crew, the show was undoubtedly a success.

Opposite page—1) Steve Dial and Kathryn Stallard pose for the camera. 2) A happy cast after opening night. 3) Dress rehearsal—don't we look interesting? 4) Jeff Norville and Benny Nations play their recorders during the course of the play. 5) A smiling couple—Liz McPhail and Scotch Hohman. 6) Director Fred Salancy obviously has no qualms about this production.

On February 17th and 18th, the Musical Theatre in Revue Class presented a tribute to Stephen Sondheim. The show featured songs such as "Comedy Tonight", "The Ballad of Sweeney Todd", "The Ladies Who Lunch", "Anyone Can Whistle", and many other Sondheim favorites. Presented in Goode Hall, the show was enjoyed by the Pfeiffer Community.

1) David Browning, Jim Dugan, and David Powell sing about the misadventures of sailors in "Pretty Lady". 2) Gay Baldwin read the audience a passage from one of Sondheim's shows. 3) Jamie Nicholson and Dexter Ramey extol the virtues of a maid in "Everybody Ought to have a Maid". Opposite page 1) Kim Robinson and Judy O'Dell wish that Mama would give up show business in "If Mama Was Married". 2) David Browning sings "You Should Meet My Wife". 3) During the second act of the show, Sherri Davis sings her solo—"Green Finch and Linnet Bird". 4) A lovely ballad, "Send in the Clowns", is sung by Sachio Takiguchi. 5) Erik Berg prepares to add his reasons as to why "Everybody Ought to have a Maid". 6) Jeff Norville gives the audience an introduction to the next number. 7) The entire cast.

Pfeiffer College Theatre's last production of the year was the dramatic musical, "West Side Story". Based on the Romeo and Juliet story, the show ran for four nights plus a special performance at Spirit Square in Charlotte.

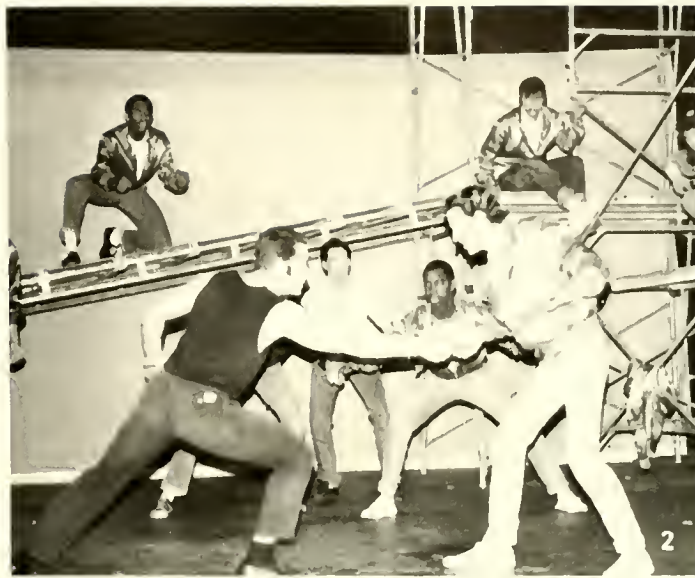

The show was undoubtedly the hit of the year. Director Fred Salancy said that their production of "West Side Story" was not unlike the original. He expressed the energy in the show when he stated, "We have 32 amateurs (those who perform for "the love of" the art) and they are singing and dancing like never before, dedicated to successfully preserving that same youthful quality." The cast sang and danced like Pfeiffer had never seen before.

One of the unique aspects of the show was the set. Designed by C.F. Raby, Jr. especially for the Pfeiffer theatre, it was built on three levels. This gave the actors the opportunity to make dramatic and unusual entrances. It also intensified the street gang mood of New York City.

Audiences were treated to excellent dramatic acting and exuberant singing. Some of the more noted numbers that were sung include "I Feel Pretty", "Maria", "Tonight", and "One Hand, One Heart". Dr. Brewer and the orchestra are to be commended.

Thanks to the dedicated work of the cast, crew and many of the Pfeiffer community, "West Side Story" was a great success. It gave the Pfeiffer Theatre another reason to be proud.

SPORTS

1983-84 Soccer Team

The 1983-84 Pfeiffer Falcon Soccer team had what they considered to be a very successful year. Pfeiffer alumni Roger Gompers did a fantastic job of coaching during his second year as soccer coach. The Falcons had an impressive season and have the right to be proud.

1983-84 Field Hockey

Ranked sixth in the nation, the Lady Falcons Field Hockey Team had a good season. Coach Nancy McDade, former Pfeiffer field hockey player, coached these enthusiastic ladies. Captain Gwen Antolik Senior halfback, and Captain Karen Oakley, Junior goalie, were both on the championship team from 1983. Both girls play a vital part in the success of the team.

The front line of the team includes Beth Connors, Rosean DeTommase, Kathy Wolf, Dawn Fromme, Alana Cooper. Sharon Norris and Ann Cogliano are both at link. Team halfbacks are Laurei Nonamons, Kelly Alvardj and Gwen Antolik. Jackie Wiest serves as sweeper and Karen Oakley takes the responsibility of goalie. The rest of the team includes freshmen Tracey Wilson, Kim Phillips, Sandy Becker, Carolyn Physer, and Cheryl Savage.

1983-84 Lacrosse Team

Lacrosse was Pfeiffer's new sport for 1983-84. A sport that requires great physical strength and coordination, it was one of the most popular sports on campus. The team, coached by Mike Stroff, spent many hours practicing diligently and was rewarded by a good showing in the spring.

1983-84 Mens Basketball Team

In his first season as the Pfeiffer Falcon's basketball coach, John Lentz led the Pfeiffer team to a very successful season. The team was lead by William Milteer, a returning letterman, along with Mike Moody and Rosco Turner.

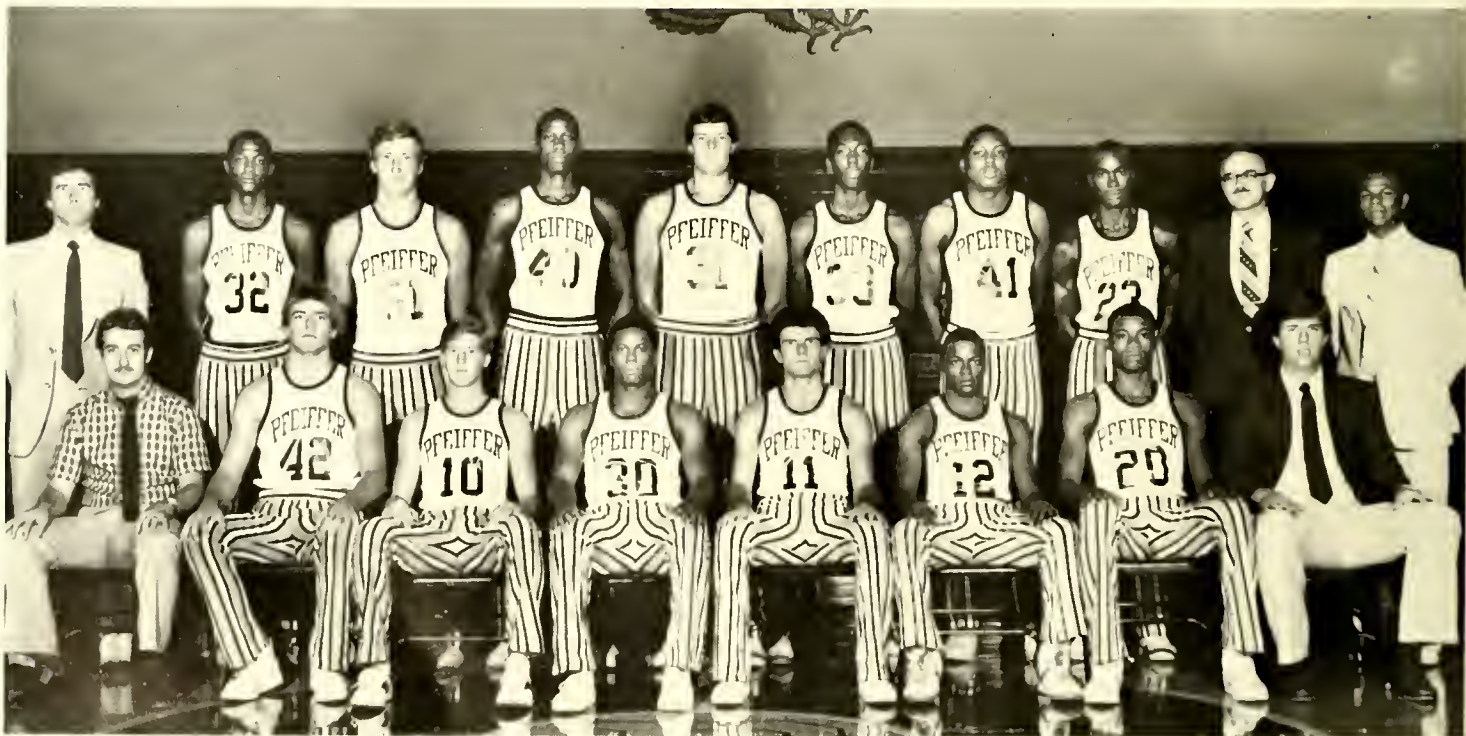

With Turner's ability to hit the long shot, Moody's cool-headed ball handling and Milteer's precision under the basket; few teams in the conference were able to control the mighty Falcons.

There were several returning players whose experience add to the overall strength of the team. Mike Ward, Rog Carpenter, Daryl White, Ed Tompkins, Harrison Finklea, Craig Cordes, Milton Vaughn and Billy Smith were among these players. The vacant places on the team were filled in with well prepared freshman players. Tony Davis' ability to hit from "downtown" and Mike Miklen's smooth ball handling eased the load off of Pfeiffer veteran players.

1983-84 Womens' Basketball

Basketball Schedule

Starting out with few in number and short on experience, the Womens' Basketball Team had a fair season, all things considered. Only two seniors were on the team one of which, Annette Carter, was the leading scorer and the other, Terri Kimmer, was the assist leader. With this in mind and the fact that six returners will have playing experience and hopefully a good recruiting year, Coach Myers is looking forward to a successful season next year.

Congratulations, Coach Ferebee!

Coach Joe Ferebee became the winningest coach in baseball in the state of North Carolina when he captured his 600th career college coaching win with a 10-9 victory over ACC foe Wake Forest on opening day.

Throughout his 28 years of coaching, he has become a friend, coach, and true gentleman to many who have followed his teams. He has given many players the chance to achieve athletic performances and helped them also to learn more about everyday life.

He started coaching at Salisbury High School, which was then Boyden High. He then became the coach of the Rowan County American Legion baseball team, a job he still holds today. He has accumulated more than 1200 wins in his career.

He is a great man who has left his presence known in many places. We would like to take this time to tell you, Coach Ferebee, thanks for the great times you have given to baseball and to Pfeiffer College.

Following are a list of his awards, championships, and honors:

1983-84 Volleyball Team

1983-84 saw the start of a new women's sport at Pfeiffer—volleyball. The nine member team was coached by Hank Johnson. Despite the fact that the team was very young—four freshmen, four juniors, and one senior—the team played admirably well. It is expected that the team will grow in the coming year.

1983-84 Wrestling Team

The 1983-84 wrestling team had a winning season this past year. They participated in over seventeen tournaments. The wrestling team coach, Ken Budd, former Pfeiffer wrestler, was named Coach of the Year—an honor for him and the team. Also achieving honors was senior Bruce Lambert. Bruce placed in several tournaments and participated in the National Collegiate Athletic Association wrestling tournament.

1983-84 Swim Team

The 1983-84 Swim team was a team that was rebuilt from a winning team last year. This year's team proved to be a winning team, also. Coach Larry Durrett and his assistant, Joe Panichello, had three letter winners from last year return. These girls were Mannette Skufca, Kelly Taylor, and Lou Anne Holtzclaw. Freshmen Cathy Bond, Kim Phillips, Jenny Smith, Monica DeCoursey, Joanne Palmer, Rhonda Hollaway, Mary Tarwater, and Renee Jones rounded out the team. Skufca once again went to Nationals.

1983-84 Cheerleaders

This year's cheerleading squad consisted of seniors Tammy Freeze and Brenda Glenn, junior Stephanie Wilson, sophomores Coletta Bryce, Valerie Baldwin, and Sam Misenheimer, freshmen Diane Becker, Nancy Cranmer, Bill Weaver, and Kendall Wright. The co-captains were Coletta Bryce and Stephanie Wilson.

The ten member squad was sponsored by Mrs. Angie Lefler, physical education instructor at Pfeiffer. A six hour cheerleading camp was held on November 20th to further develop the cheerleading skills of the team. Doing numerous cheers, stunts, and dance routines that were choreographed by the North Carolina State Cheerleaders, the Pfeiffer cheerleaders helped spur the Falcons on to victory.

From the Editor . . .

This year has been a hard year for The Chimes. There are always problems but we had an unusual amount. This biggest problem was pictures. The photography unit designed to provide all our photographs died before it was on its feet. This left us early in the year without a photographer, camera, film, etc. The Chimes is totally dependent on pictures—you can't have a yearbook without them. We were very fortunate in that several people stepped in and helped us out. What The Chimes needs, though, is not a devoted few but a working willing photography unit.

Financially, The Chimes hit trouble spots. We had invested in the photography unit and after its demise, had to go outside the school for development of pictures. This drained our resources. We also suffered the loss of our business manager second semester.

The most discouraging thing, though, was the reaction we got to some changes we felt needed to be made. Change doesn't come very easily to Pfeiffer; tradition is firmly embedded. Tradition must give way to change on occasion. We made some changes that needed to be made and received quite a bit of hassle. The Chimes doesn't need hassle—it needs a good working staff. If you are dissatisfied with something that is going on—get involved. That is how you make a positive impact instead of causing problems.

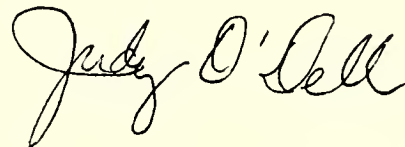

The Chimes is not a few people; it is Pfeiffer College. There can't be a yearbook without your interest and cooperation. It is also your responsibility not just the staff and photographers. We can't do anything without you.

There are gaps in this book—there always are in publications of this nature. I wish next year's editors Wade Atkins and Kendall Wright all the luck. Seniors, I realize there were a lot of problems and confusion on your side, too. We printed all the pictures we received.

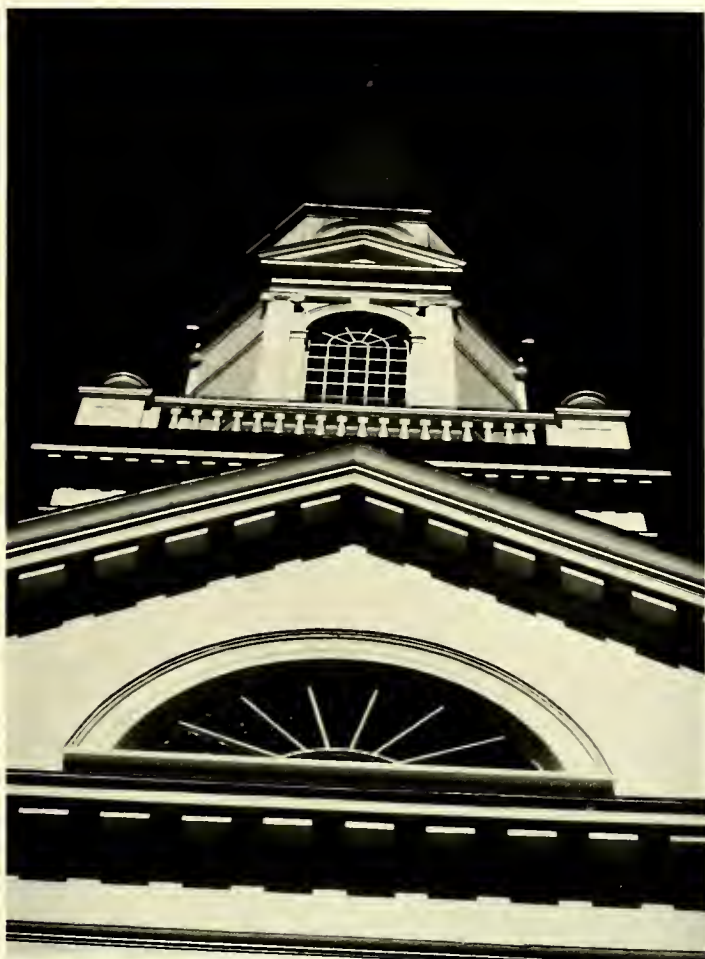

I need to mention some special people—Jeannine Halverson, Larry Sides, Tom Westcott, David Joyce, Jim Olliver, Kevin Allran, Wade Atkins, Gay Baldwin, Buster Waters, Richard Lafferty, Theresa Newman, Mark Stephenson, Dr. Richard Brewer, Mr. Eugene Earnhardt, and the Communications Council—without these people there would be no yearbook. The Chimes would also like to thank all the students who loaned us pictures. Wade and Kendall, good luck again. It isn't easy.

Gay, Jonathan, and Judith—thank you for all the support. This is for you. To the Pfeiffer community I bid a fond farewell and hope that life treats you gently and kindly.

Sincerely,

This is the experience. The experience is walking down to the lake after class, shooting baskets in the old gym, cramming for exams, playing Frisbee in front of Rowe, singing in the chapel late at night, a finished chemistry lab, Sunday chapel services, trying on graduation caps and gowns, swimming in the pool, running a computer program, the chapel steps in the middle of the night, practices and rehearsals—the experience is just being here. This is Pfeiffer College. You are Pfeiffer College.
